

prison for a term not exceeding ten years, and fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars.

SEC. 98. If any person shall carry to any convict imprisoned or in custody, or into any county jail or other place where such convict may be confined, any tool, weapon, or other aid, with intent to enable such convict to escape such custody or confinement, whether such escape be effected or not, any person so offending, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the Territorial prison not exceeding five years.

SEC. 99. If any person or persons shall rescue another in legal custody on civil process, such person or persons shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

SEC. 100. If any person shall aid or assist a prisoner, lawfully imprisoned or detained in custody for any offence against this Territory, or who shall be lawfully confined by virtue of any civil process, to make his or her escape from imprisonment or custody, though no escape be actually made; or if any person shall convey or cause to be delivered to such prisoner any disguise, instrument, or arms proper to facilitate the escape of such prisoner, any person so offending (although no escape or attempt to escape be actually made), shall, on conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding two years.

SEC. 101. If any sheriff, coroner, jailor, keeper of a prison, constable, or other officer or person whatever, having any prisoner in his legal custody before conviction, shall voluntarily suffer or permit such prisoner to escape or go at large, every such officer or person so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail for any time not exceeding five years: Provided that, if such prisoner be in custody charged with murder or other capital offence, then such officer or person suffering or permitting such escape, shall be punished by imprisonment in the Territorial prison, for any term not less than one year nor more than ten years. A negligent escape of a person charged with a criminal offence, before conviction, from the custody of any of the aforesaid officers, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

SEC. 102. If any sheriff, coroner, keeper of a jail, constable, or other officer, shall wilfully refuse to receive or arrest any person charged with a criminal offence, such sheriff, coroner, jailor, constable, or other officer so offending, shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding five years.

SEC. 103. Every person having a knowledge of the actual commission of any offence punishable by imprisonment in a county jail, or by fine; or of any misdemeanor or violation of any statute for which any pecuniary or other penalty is or shall be prescribed; who shall take any money, property, gratuity, or reward, or any engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal any such offence or misdemeanor, or to abstain from any prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof—shall, upon conviction, be fined
